

We invite you to a women's dialog sponsored by Medicine Wheel Productions

JANE HENRY PARSONS "FIFTEEN WOMEN"

Portraits celebrating the power of individual and collective spirit.

Sparked by the current show in the gallery, and the young women involved with Medicine Wheel, we will explore what it means to "Feel Safe."

A creative and engaging group of Boston area women have agreed to share their views on the knowing ways of women and how collectively we do make a difference.

Join us for this special dialogue, a presentation, potluck dinner and closing celebration for "15 Women."

Thursday, February 24, 2011

110 K Street, 2nd floor, South Boston, MA

Panel discussion begins at 6:30pm followed by pot luck dinner*

RSVP to KathleenBitetti@gmail.com free street parking is available

*all those attending are asked to bring a dish for the potluck dinner.

November 3, 2010-February 24, 2011

Our panel includes

Suzanne Bump Massachusetts State Auditor

Gail Burton Dramatist, Faculty: Emerson College and Roxbury Community College, Joker:
Theater of the Oppressed

Shani Dowd Director of Culture InSight at the Harvard Pilgrim Health Care Foundation

Michele Hart Assistant Vice President and Branch Manager, Eastern Bank

Marian Pierce Hoffart Painter, Winner of a AOL 25 for 25 Grant for Creative Thinkers

Reverend Sylvia Johnson formerly of the Hyams Foundation

Adrienne Krstansky Actor, Director, Assistant Professor of Theater Art, Brandeis University

Veronique Le Melle Executive Director, Boston Center for the Arts

Jane Henry Parsons Fine Artist

Ingrid Schorr Office for the Arts, Brandeis University